AGENTCARS EXPANDS ITS SUCCESSFUL COOPERATION WITH DISCOVER THE WORLD TO TURKEY

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, Aug. 28, 2017—AgentCars, the world’s easiest online car rental platform, has expanded its successful sales and marketing representation by Discover the World to Turkey beginning in August.

AgentCars Co-Founder and CEO Grace Villamayor said, “We have partnered with Discover in 12 other countries and are very aware of its capabilities and sales techniques. Discover’s office in Turkey identified the need for a user-friendly car rental platform to service the trade community since one doesn’t exist today in Turkey.”

“Our office in Turkey has been operating for just a year and a half and represents, in addition to AgentCars, such global brands as Aeromexico, Caesar’s Entertainment, bmi regional, GOL Airlines, and Hotelmize,” said Ian Murray, Discover the World’s executive vice president. “It was this office’s local knowledge and energy that led to AgentCars being represented in this market. It demonstrates the capabilities of this and our other offices around the globe.”
